SWIMMING MEET IN MATTAPOISETT

Another year of preparation and instruction is about to show off a new crop of swimmers at the annual swimming meet at the town bathing beach. This event is one of the most worthwhile and interesting of the summer season. Almost all of the town youngsters have learned to handle themselves well in the water, and have been practicing hard for this competition. We expect to see some exciting speed events and endurance swimming. These young swimmers always have put on a good show, so don't miss this one.

The swimming meet will be held at 2:00 on Sunday, August 14th, at the Mattapoisett Town Beach under the direction of the Water Safety Instructors, Jacqueline Gasse and Albert Boucher. Assisting the instructors are Bridie Derraine, bathhouse superintendent, and Charles Dexter, town beach police officer.

The events are: girls, 25-yard swim for those 11 and under; 50-yard swim for those 14 and under; and a 100-yard swim for those 15 and over. Boys' events will be similar. There also will be a diving contest for both girls and boys. Those entering the mile race must have the consent of their parents. Added feature events will be an old timers' watermelon race, a teen-agers' watermelon race and clown diving.

There will be trophies for all events. All those wishing to compete should register at the bathhouse. Swimming certificates for those having successfully completed the various swimming courses will be awarded with the trophies at the close of the meet. Refreshments will be served.

CRESCENT BEACH IMPROVEMENT ASSOCIATION NEWS

People are coming, and people are going. Among those who have departed are Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Voelker and children, who spent an enjoyable two weeks here. Among the arrivals are Mr. and Mrs. Polker and family from Brooklyn, New York. Also Mr. and Mrs. Chandler Jones from Hudson, Ohio, who spend every other summer here. We hope you enjoy your stay with us.

Well folks, another thing which comes and goes, which we do not like so well is our "Old Faithful", the raft. It came in again with "Brenda" and really constituted a hazard in shallow water. However, it has been put out again, thanks to some of our strong men, and we hope it stays out this time.

How about a new one, folks? Would you support a drive for it if we should start one? Talk it over, speak to your officers, and come to the meeting where it can be discussed. This is your beach, and your raft, and your wholehearted support can put this thing over.

On August 11th, the whist party will be sponsored by Mrs. Dempsey.

The food sale last Saturday, run by the Juniors, was a whopping success. Delectable pies, cakes and cookies were sold to the tune of $35.40. Good work!

Mr. Suesens is enjoying his new boat. He went out to "No Man's Land" - wherever that is - and caught 99 tautog and scup - 'er pardon me - one digit too many - nine is correct. We wouldn't want you to get the wrong impression.

We have heard that some crescents have been

MATTAPOISETT REGATTA

A perfect sailing day saw 50 boats competing in the annual regatta of the Mattapoisett Yacht Club held last Saturday. The race which was scheduled for the preceding Saturday had to be postponed because of the gale of that day. Prizes were awarded at the dance held at the Yacht Club Casino on Saturday night.

The handicap race for the Stackpole Bowl was won by David Cabot with his "Bagatelle". The boat has a Buzzards Bay 25-foot hull, yawl rigged, 32.25 ft. length, from the New Bedford Yacht Club. Second place was taken by "Whisper", skippered by L. S. Porter of the Bristol Yacht Club. Third place was taken by Orum Kerst of Depot Street, Mattapoisett in "Baccarat", a 46'4" cutter of the New Bedford Yacht Club. Other entries in the handicap class were: Edward F. R. Wood, Jr., "Stardust", Matt. YC; Leonard E. Perry, "Oobs", N.B. YC; David Westgate, "Jolly Tar", N.B. YC; Bruce Biddle, catamaran, N.B. YC; Talman Bigelow, "Sailstar Explorer 17", Bev. YC; Paul M. Gibbs, "Nejs-Ks" and Henderson Inches, "Heron", Matt. YC.

Other classes and entries were: International 110s, Paul Schmid, Bahama Mama, NB YC, winner; and Harvey Phipard, Imp, NB YC.

NORTH ROCHESTER CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH HISTORY

Records show that in 1753 North Rochester was formed into the third precinct of Rochester, and its members formed themselves into the third church. Records of the first parish show that in 1791 a committee was appointed to deliver to the parishioners of the third precinct their full proportion of the ministry lands "whether they continue Congregationalists, or whether they are Baptists or Friends."

On June 9, 1929 a plan was introduced to the people of Rochester and Lakeville to organize a larger parish. This was a first attempt in Massachusetts and other rural fields watch the proceedings with interest.

A supper was held at Rochester Grange Hall and the advantages were pointed out by the Rev. Alfred V. Bliss, State secretary of the Massachusetts Congregational Conference and Missionary Society, the Rev. John P. Garfield, then pastor of the Central Congregational Church, Middleboro and the Rev. Joseph B. Lyman of Sandwich, pastor at large of the Congregational Southeastern Massachusetts area.

The suggestion of such a possibility met with a ready response and a spirited question and answer period followed at the conclusion of the plan presented by the Messrs. Bliss, Garfield and Lyman. The next meeting for the organization of a Larger Parish was held at the residenceof Miss Josephine P. White on June 23 and Mr. Garfield presided as chairman and Mrs. Evan Bowen as secretary.

In 1930 the hard work done by members and friends brought its accomplishments and the Larger Parish was formed and they included four Congregational churches located in East Rochester, North Rochester, Lakeville and Taunton precinct.

The next step was to elect three members from each church to sit on the council which was to employ a staff of workers subject to church ratification; "raise the budget, and to attend to all matters affecting the Larger Parish.

The Rochester-Lakeville larger parish was officially formed July 17, 1930 at a meeting held in Grove Chapel Congregational Church, Lakeville. Incidentally the forming of a larger parish was a first in Massachusetts at that time.

To help the Larger Parish to a good start financially the Massachusetts Congregational Conference and Missionary Society, the governing body of the denomination in the state supplied $2,000., $500. for each church.

The vote of the council showed that two fulltime pastors were chosen and they divided their time among the four churches. Everett T. Bemont was secured to take up the work, which he carried on for three months in the four parishes until the coming of the Rev. Harry L. Coole in January, 1931. Mr. Bemont continued until July 31, 1932 and on October 1, 1932 the Rev. Andrew W. Solandt was called as associate pastor.

George A. Cowen, a member of North Rochester Congregational Church was chosen chairman of the council and executive head of the parish. Records show that Mr. Cowen "rendered invaluable services in its formative years".

Assisting Mr. Cowen was Mrs. Nellie Peck, East Rochester Congregational Church, vice-chairman; Mrs. Eva Bowen, Rochester, secretary; Harry Parker, Grove Chapel, treasurer
